Welcome Week Volunteers

Our first main call for SU 'Support' Crew members is helping the Students' Union in delivering our Welcome Week 2022 activities and events.

The student volunteers who work with us during Welcome Week are highly valued by the Students' Union.

As an SU Support Crew Member for Welcome Week, you will be there to:

- Provide a friendly, reassuring and knowledgeable welcome to new students as they arrive on move-in weekend, assist during Welcome Week events
- Provide any information they might need during Welcome Week, answering any questions new students have about university life and advise them on where they can access services and support.
- Help them to settle in, find their way around campuses & the local area and get involved in Students' Union activities & events.
- Be ambassadors for the Students' Union and signpost students to all of the services we provide. You will be acting as a link between the SU and the new students during Welcome Week
- Encourage everyone to get involved, make friends, have fun and (most importantly) stay safe.

You will work as a team and should be alert to any problems that new students commonly experience and be aware of where they can go to get help and advice. You will be expected to provide clear and concise information, not advice or counselling.
